

SHIRLEE SHARKEY, CEO
Saint Elizabeth Healthcare

"The Juice Check is a simple yet powerful tool that everyone can understand and use, from our front-line staff to senior management. There is tremendous value from a strategy and planning perspective, because your answers to engagement issues can be found right in the questions."

DINA DIRE, Supervisor
Bausch & Lomb

"The outcome of the training was fantastic. Now people are coming to me with their solutions and they're sharing their experiences. People volunteer to help each other. There is more openness. Employees are coming to conclusions and solving their own problems."

UNICEF Canada

"This was the best customer service training I've ever had. The facilitator was viewed by the audience as an expert in drawing out understanding and application. Constant light bulbs were going on with the participants in relation to their responsibility to make customer service excellence a priority."

BARBARA PALMER, VP HR
Botsford Hospital

"Juice knows how to work with executive teams. Their perspective into the complex world of healthcare and employee retention... helped galvanize our employee engagement strategy into something that is actionable, and it will certainly give us an edge in retaining and attracting talent."
